Welcome! The Apostolic Church...

is glad you have come today to worship with us.

In this place there is hope for the soul! There is an old song that goes like this..."Got any rivers you think are uncrossable? Got any mountains you can not tunnel through? God specializes in things called impossible, and he can do what no other power can do!"

"And Jesus said unto them...If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place: and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you."

Matthew 17:20

An Anchor For The Soul

As we turn out the light and lay our head down on the pillow for the night, we sometimes are so glad the day is over.

We may think what kind of day it was, perhaps a very bad day. You may count the things that went wrong, or perhaps came up against some obstacles. Did we say the wrong thing to someone, someone may have been cross with you? Did you miss a chance to share God's love and forgiveness with someone?

In repentance, we can survey the wreckage of the day and look with hope to Jesus Christ our Savior, who covers us with His coat of righteousness, making us whole again.

The hope of salvation is the anchor that secures our soul. His grace and mercy allows us to live tomorrow graciously and without guilt.

If the day disintegrates around you, S.T.O.P. and take a - Spiritual Time Out for Prayer!

"We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure."
Hebrews 6:19

Chains of Bondage

Satan put chains on Paul and Silas, but today our chains are not always seen by the visible eye. There is only one way to break the chains of bondage - and that is through prayer and fasting!
